

www.studio12.org.uk

Studio12 is an audio visual media project providing free access to a production studio, training, accredited qualifications and an Industry Panel of creative professionals working in design, music, video and media arts.

Training takes place at the production space in Central Library and across the city at the Studio12 Baseunits. Who Can Take Part in Studio12? People aged 16 – 30 who are living in Leeds, with priority given to people not in education and employment.

What Happens at Studio12's Production Base in Central Library?

People taking part in Studio12 create a range of Media related project depending what people want to produce. Studio12 is designed to help produce your ideas into something REAL. Training works on a one to one basis, so best to get in touch.

You can access a range of hardware and software to produce your project. including Sony HD cameras, digital SLR's, Photography and film studios, keyboards scanners, and tablets. You can use a range of software and training to produce your project including: Reason, Cubase, Adobe Premier, Final Cut Pro ,Photoshop, 3D studio Max, Flash, Dreamweaver, and Aftereffects. Bring your ideas and visions to the studio and make it happen.

Participants can choose to complete an Open College Network Qualification in Audio Visual Media Production, levels 2 & 3. We also are now delivering the Arts Award.

Work is critiqued by Industry Panel of creative professionals. Current panellists include representatives from Channel4, BBC and Utah Saints. Work will be showcased on the Studio12 website, BBC Big screen and at Studio12 events in the City Centre.

What Happens in taster session?

Taster session are available for community groups and youth organisations based in the Leeds area. This is a relaxed introduction to some of the project's opportunities in Film animation, photography and music production.

Training will not take more than 16 hours per week and should not affect benefits.

Training Sessions @ Central Library Tuesday - Friday 1pm – 5pm
Mornings for community project and groups by arrangement.

Studio12, Central Library, Calverley St,
LEEDS, LS1 3AB

Telephone: 0113 3951593

Email: bookings@studio12.org.uk

www.studio12.org.uk